What You Will Learn

- How to know what you really want by forming your purpose.
- Why this is vital to do FIRST and HOW to form your purpose.
- How to get super clear about your wants.
- Action steps to cement in your purpose.

Let's get started!

The very first step to achieving what you want is to determine what it is that you want.

Cat: Where are you going?
Alice: Which way should I go?
Cat: That depends on where you are going.
Alice: I don't know.
Cat: Then it doesn't matter
which way you go.
– Alice in the Wonderland

Why This Is Important

1

Clarity gives you a destination of where you want to go.

2

Clarity eliminates all distractions

3

Clarity makes you proactive rather reactive.

Clarity Exercise

1. Out of curiosity, what is the ultimate vision you have for your life?
2. Now bringing it back to here and now, what specifically do you want first?
3. How will you know you have achieved it?
4. Describe clearly what you will see, hear and feel when you achieve it.
5. What will achieving this get for you or allow you to do?
6. Who is this for?
7. Where are you in relation to the result?
8. What resources do you have now, and what do you need in order to get your result?
9. Have you ever achieved this before?

10. Do you know anyone who has achieved this or something similar before?
11. How would you like to do research on creating the result?
12. What is the purpose of achieving this?
13. What will you gain or lose if you have it?
For the below, is the answer the same? If not, it may be incongruent.
14. What will happen if you get it?
15. What won't happen if you get it?
16. What will happen if you don't get it?
17. What won't happen if you don't get it?
